THE BRSCC GUARDS INTERNATIONAL

Brands Hatch on Monday, September 2

RAC BRITISH SPORTS CAR CHAMPIONSHIP RACE

Mighty 400 horse-power Ford GT.40's and Lola T.70's . . . snarling Porsches and Ferraris and fleet streamlined Lotus Europas, Chevrons, Ginettas and Nathans . . . these are some of the cars which will make up the 10,000 horse-power entry for the last round of the RAC British Sports Car Championship—the famous Guards International—at Brands Hatch Grand Prix Circuit, Kent on Bank Holiday Monday, September 2.

As these words are written the Championship is still a neck and neck contest between Australia's Paul Hawkins in his crimson Ford GT.40 and Midlander Bill Bradley with his blue and white Porsche. Yet race victory at Brands could well come to one of the five-litre American-powered British-built Lolas that have the capability of smashing the sports car lap record.

And if this is not enough there are two heats and a final of a place-swapping wolf-pack of Formula 3 cars and, of course, one of those tyre-squealing Saloon Car Championship races of the type that only Brands can provide.
